

Stephan Werthmüller

Partner at Heusler Werthmüller Heitz (HWH) AG
Member of the Advisory Board of Testaris Ltd

Following his business management studies at the University of Basel, Stephan Werthmüller worked as a certified tax expert with consulting firm Deloitte since the mid-1980s and subsequently as a partner and consultant at the law offices of Holzach & Partner and Wenger Plattner. His two engagements as CFO of FC Basel 1893 (1996–1998, 2012–2017) were also during this period.

In addition, Stephan Werthmüller made a name for himself in the world of culture. Among other activities in this area, in 1986, he and two friends founded today's Baloise Session, whose Chairman he is. Furthermore, he was appointed to the Board of Directors of KKL Luzern and also performs leadership roles at other cultural institutions such as the Basel Kunstmuseum.

Moreover, Stephan Werthmüller holds further directorships in enterprises operating at regional and national level.
